

ALMA MATER
DREAMING OF ALMA MATER,
DOWN ON THE EASTERN SHORE,
DREAMING OF PALS AND FRIENDSHIPS,
MEMORIES FOREVERMORE.

DEEP IN MY HEART THERE'S A LONGING,
JUST FOR THE SIGHT OF YOU;
I KNOW YOU'RE ALWAYS WAITING,
I KNOW YOU'RE ALWAYS TRUE.

ALMA MATER, ALMA MATER, I LOVE YOU.
PARADISE FOREVER LIES 'NEATH SKIES OF BLUE.
IN THE SUNSHINE OR IN SHADOW EVER NEW,
ALMA MATER, ALMA MATER, I LOVE YOU.

With Fond Affection

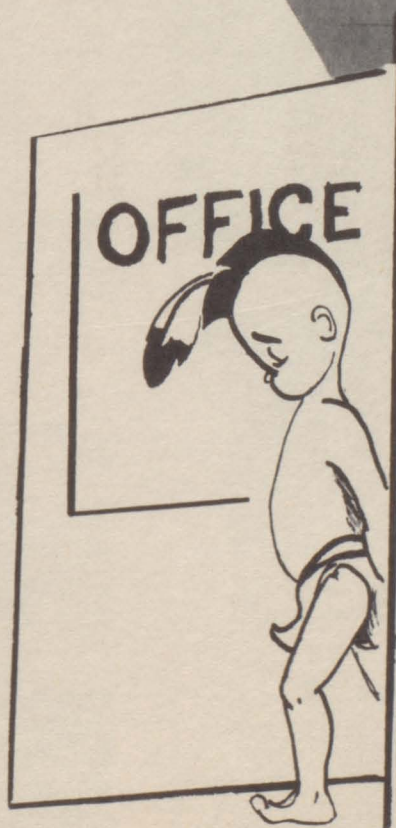

We, being in all probability the last senior class to graduate from this school, do affectionately dedicate this book to Wicomico High School.

Within these portals are held many fond memories and joyous moments. As the class of nineteen hundred and fifty-four leaves through its doors for the last time, its members will be filled with regret and gratitude for the memorable times they are leaving behind . . . and they will take a final glance at their beloved alma mater.

Our Most Unforgettable Years

Now, as the Class of 1954 sings the Alma Mater for the last time, its 179 members know that many happy thoughts and memories of their days at Wicomico High will linger in their minds always.

SUB-FRESHMEN. No one could have been more confused, eager, or excited than those of us who entered the corridors of Wi-Hi that sunny day in September '49. We could never learn to follow a schedule, and who could tell one room from the other? But naturally, like those before us, we also gradually became adjusted to the many rooms, changing of classes, "up" and "down" steps, and the mass confusion in the cafeteria. Soon we were participating in the Glee Club, intramural sports, assemblies, and our class party. Then at the close of our first year, we elected Betty Hubeny and Joanne Rawson to represent us in May Day.

We entered our FRESHMAN year with more confidence, but still a little excited because we were now out of the eighth grade. Many new things entered our program this year: more assemblies, dances with the upperclassmen, sports, and the election of Patsy Pollitt to the Winter Carnival Court. Another highlight of the year was the election of Mary E. Ellis to serve as secretary of the Student Council the following year. This same year we were represented in the May Court by Anne Tull, Liz Ellis, and Patsy Pollitt.

As SOPHOMORES, we began engaging in many extra activities with the Sophomore Sweater Hop turning out to be a huge success. Anne Tull was elected to the Winter Carnival Court and Andrea Wien, Carole Lee Dryden, and Betty Hubeny were our representatives to the May Day festivals. Another highlight of this year was Student Council election in which we elected Judy White, 2nd vice-president; and Mary Rue Dallas, 3rd vice-president. Lee Levering, took over as 2nd vice-president when Judy White moved away.

JUNIORS! We were at last upperclassmen. Many exciting happenings were to come, the first being the election of class officers. They were: Jerry Davis, president; Patsy Pollitt, vice president; Andrea Wien, secretary; and Peggy Rademaker, treasurer. Then there was that big night when we presented our junior class play, "You Can't Take It With You." The junior dance proved to be wonderful and successful. The Junior-Senior Banquet made us realize that we would soon hold that long sought position of seniors. And then once again came the Student Council elections for '54, and Lee Levering was chosen president with Richard Spencer, vice-president. May Day closed the big activities of the year with Jane Younger, Carole Lee Dryden, and Kristin Johnson representing the junior class.

SENIORS. We were now, finally, believe it or not, honest to goodness, seniors of the class of '54. We couldn't believe it, and even the day we received our class rings it was scarcely realized. This was truly a busy and exciting year. First came the selection of senior class officers in which Bill Livingston became president; Jerry Davis, vice-president; Judy White, secretary; John Dardine, treasurer; and Tille Worthington, historian. Judy White was chosen yearbook editor, with Pat Patterson, assistant editor; Peggy Rademaker, business manager; and Jim Coffinberger, advertising manager. The senior play, "Father of the Bride," directed by Miss Audrey Stewart, was a tremendous success. Bill Livingston proved to be a capable WI-HI NEWS editor.

Time was speeding by. In February Jane Younger was crowned Queen of the Winter Carnival. Soon followed name cards, announcements, Junior-Senior Banquet, May Day, senior awards, and the Prom, an event we had been looking forward to since entering way back in '49. Yes, it was just as wonderful and glamorous as expected. Time had passed by so fast; now we, the class of '54, were graduating. Baccalaureate services were ended and Commencement was nigh. We leave realizing these years have been the best and most unforgettable of our lives.

CLASS MOTTO: "One never knows what he can do until he tries."

CLASS SONG: "Thanks for the Memory"

CLASS COLORS: Red and White

CLASS FLOWER: Red Roses

ACTIVITIES

"MAY I HEP YOU, SUH?" In accord with the Southern scene, seniors are waited on by colored butlers, who are in reality members of the F.F.A.

NORTH CAROLINA HIGH SCHOOLS ADD TOUCH. Seniors received a helping hand from a N.C. school, which sent some Spanish moss for decorations. Above, Kris Johnson, decoration chairman; and Bill Livingston, class president, unpack moss.

MAY I HAVE THIS DANCE? (Below) Seniors enjoy dancing to the soft music of Will Smith. In the background can be seen a southern plantation.

With the playing of "Pomp and Circumstance", Suzanne Metz reigned as Queen of May.

The festival was opened by the singing of the "Lord's Prayer" by Doris Gootee, who was accompanied on the piano by Lois Brown. Then the processional was played by the Wicomico High Band while lovely attendants and their handsome escorts; flower girls, Andrea Jupina and Brenda Marie Williams; crown bearer, Dane R. Eckert; dutchess Kristin Johnson and her escort, Bill Livingston; Student Council president, Lee Levering, and Queen Susie Metz took their seats of honor.

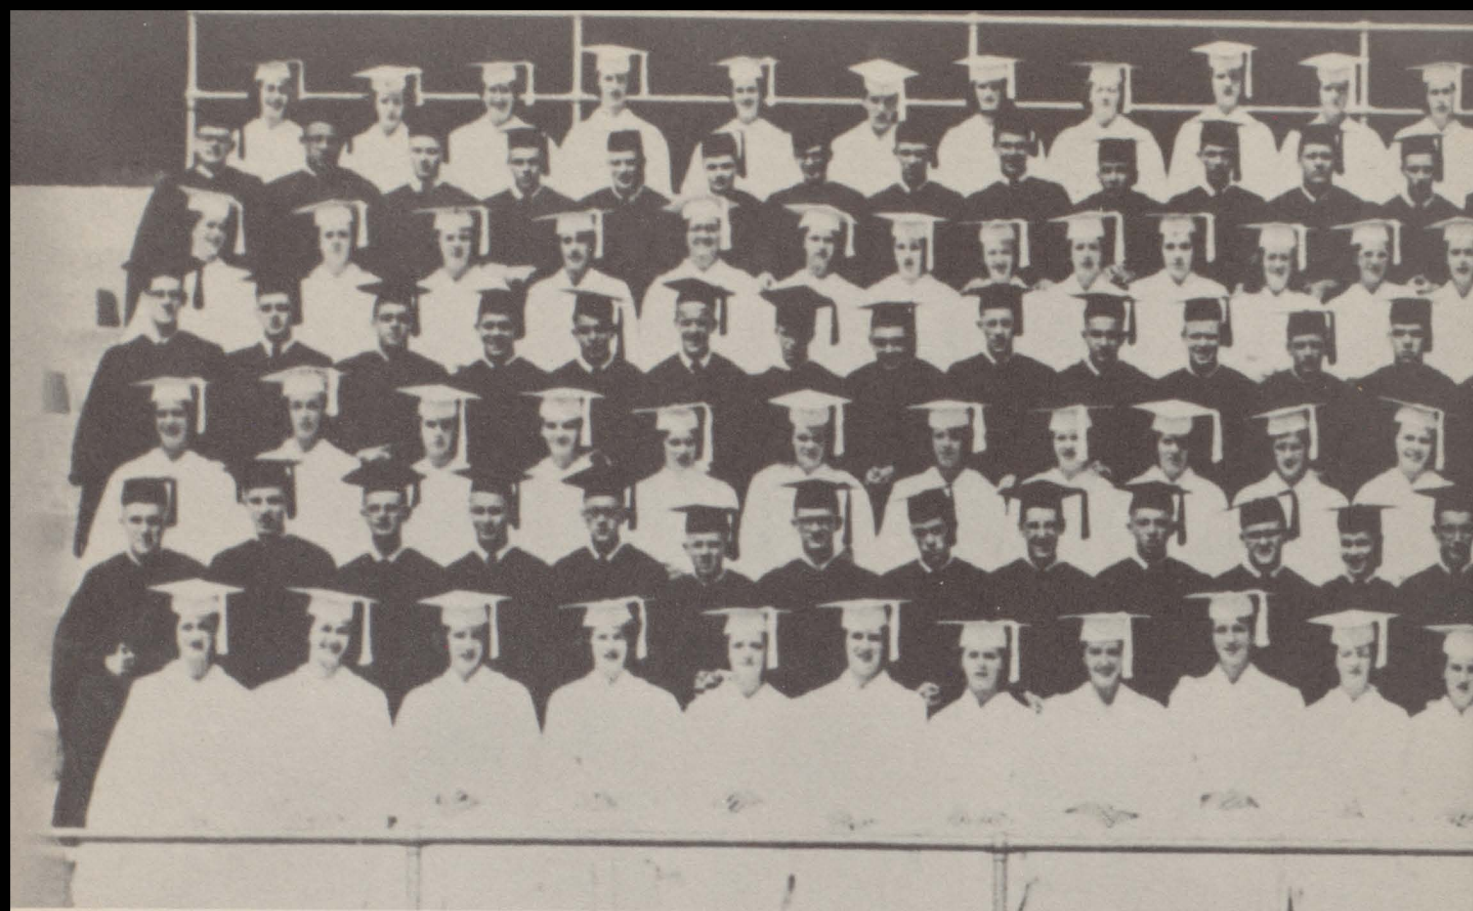

The court was then entertained by various groups who demonstrated the school months on parade.

Duchess Kristin Johnson is escorted by Bill Livingston.

Education Is Essential For Success

On June 1, 1954, the last senior class of Wi-Hi graduated in the Wicomico High School auditorium.

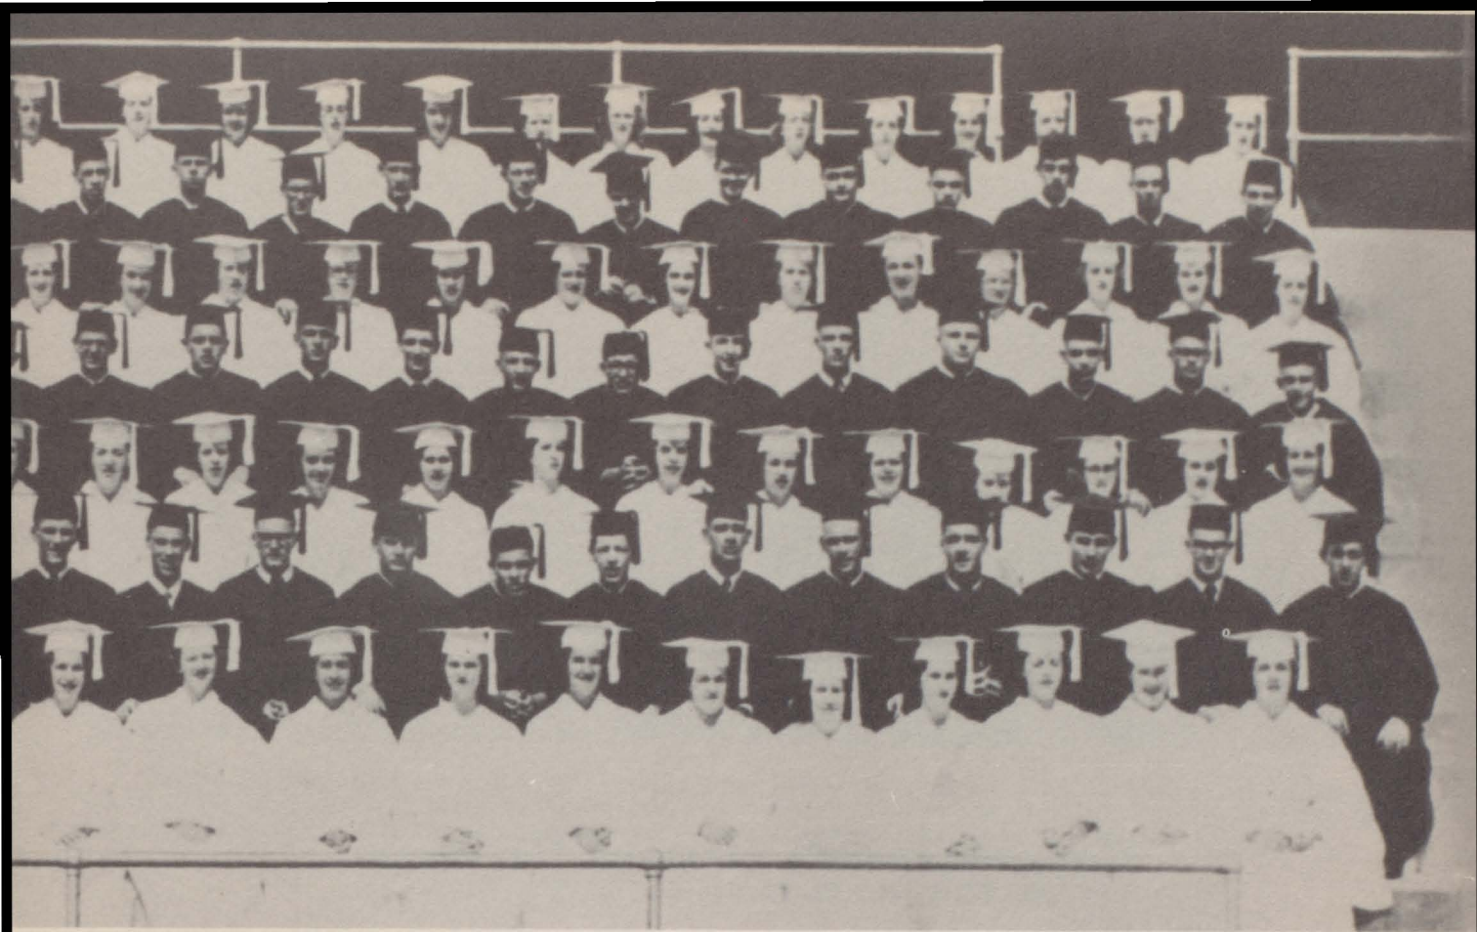

Mr. Jerome Frampton, Jr., vice president of the State Board of Education, addressed the 177 graduates. In his address, "Education in Our Modern World", Mr. Frampton told the graduates to avail themselves through education of their opportunities to build a better world, and that their responsibilities to their families and to society will ever increase.

He also told them that education will help them to prepare for life's burdens and will make death more tolerable. His concluding remark was "through education comes understanding and through understanding comes the great challenge of the hour to do good and to lead others to do the same."

AT LEFT: GRADUATED AT LAST! Bill Livingston, president of the Senior Class, receives diploma from Mr. J. Frank Pusey, member of the Wicomico County Board of Education.

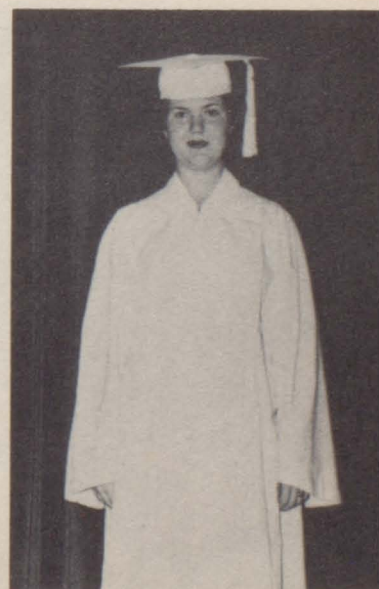

Seniors Look Toward The Future

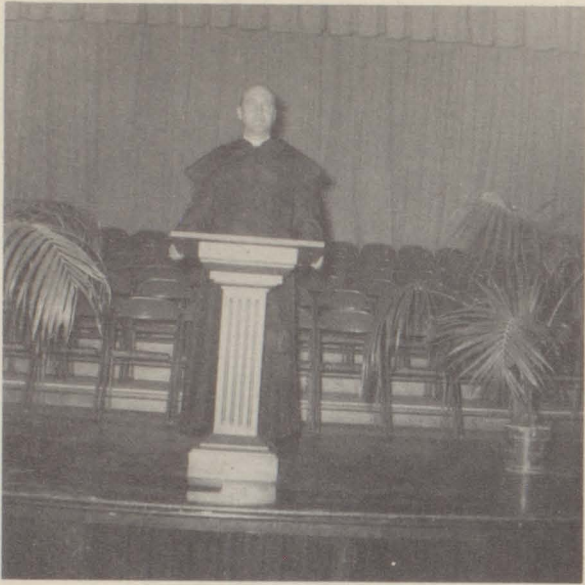

Gathered as a group for a solemn moment, the Class of 54 realize that Commencement means soon they will be scattered to the four corners of the earth. Some will enter college to continue their education, some will go into service in hopes of seeing the world, while others plan to begin their vocation as soon as they graduate.

AT RIGHT: "NO ONE KNOWS . . ." Lorena Thomas, who was chosen class orator, used as her welcoming speech the class motto, "No one knows what he can do until he tries." Lorena told the audience that "The Class of 54 is aiming for the top of the ladder of success and though some will never reach the heights, they will, even by their mistakes, make discoveries."

THE FLAG REPRESENTS
... Father Gage emphasizes love of country in Baccalaureate Sermon.

Baccalaureate Service Is Held

The sermon to the graduates was given by the Reverend Nelson M. Gage, pastor of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, on Sunday evening, June 6, in the high school auditorium.

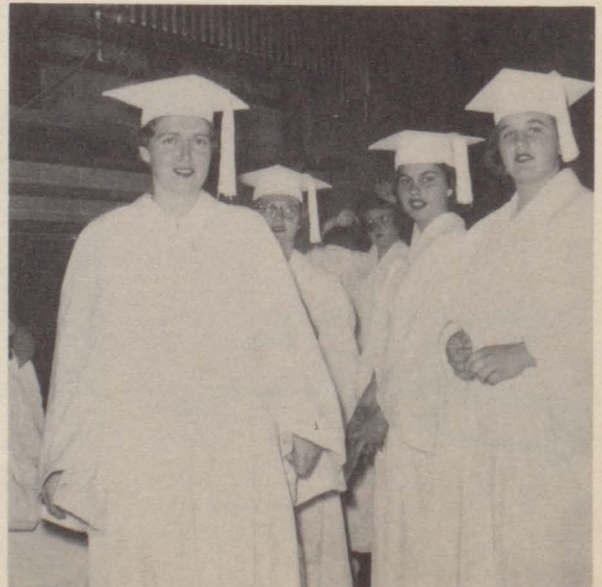

His sermon based on Chapter 13 of First Corinthians emphasized the importance of laws and security. Love of country is most important. He said the graduates should remember the colors of the flag: blue represents loyalty, red-courage, and white-purity, symbolizing the things that make security possible.

After the concluding hymn and benediction, the graduates marched out to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance".

ALL READY? Senior girls line up for the grand entrance, but a few have to finish reading or combing their hair.

Juniors Stage Banquet for Seniors

IN REPLY--Bill Livingston, Senior Class president, answers the toast given by Morris Jones, Junior Class vice-president.

"THIS CRAZY MIXED UP CLASS OF 1954 LEAVES--" Mary Rue Dallas and Pat Pollitt, will chairman, read the Senior Class Will.

ALL MALE SLATE IS KEPT WORKING. Junior class officers were tireless workers this year. Their principal duty was making plans for the Junior Dance and the Junior-Senior Banquet. Of-

Extra Activities Keep Wi-Hi'ers Busy

NINE SENIORS ATTEND FORUM. From L. to R. TOP ROW: Edmund Walton, Buddy Liebman, Curtis Sammons. ROW 2: Mike Roberts, Jim Moulthrop, Elvira Mezick, Lorena Thomas. ROW 3: Faye White and Joan Hayman. These students were selected from the senior class to represent Wi-Hi at the New York Herald Tribune Forum. Mr. Horace Nims and Mr. Morris Jones, accompanied them. Seen here, they are receiving a check from Mrs. Eugene Todd, P.T.A. president.

Jack Messick, Bob Pusey, Darlene Auvil, Faye Barnett, Jim Kenny, and Pete Reddish. (Seated) Rosalee Lynch.

Juniors Score a Hit

The play, "Death Takes a Holiday", was dramatized by Walter Ferris from the book By Alberta Casella. "A good presentation of a thrilling mystery drama", was the concensus of those who saw the Junior Class Play on May 13 and 14, 1954.

As the curtain rose Prince Sirki (Charles Mulford) alias Death is taking a three-day holiday. While at the home of Duke of Lambert (Bob Pusey), Prince Sirki falls in love with Grazia (Barbara Testa), daughter of San Luca (Rosalee Lynch). At the end of his vacation, Death discovers Grazia is in love with him and wants to go back into Death with him. Corrado (Lee Brewington) is in love with Grazia and tries desperately to bring her back to him before she leaves.

After protests from her mother and the others, she goes with Death to his kingdom. During the play Baron Cesarea (Jack Messick) adds humor with his witty remarks.

The parts were played very well, but the smooth performance was made possible only through the complete cooperation on the part of the stage crew and the various committees.

IS HE VALENTINO'S SUCCESSOR? Mr. Clifton Hope, director, discusses the art of making love with Charles Mulford and Nancy Deputy, one of the many female characters whom Death entrances.

Moulthrop, MR. BANKS; J. H. Williams, TOMMY BANKS; Gerald Tarr, MR. MASSOULA. (SEATED) Joanne Brown, MRS. PULITSKI; Shirley Bradley, DELILAH; Phyllis Lowe, MISS BELLAMY; Joan Askey, MRS. BANKS.

"Here Comes the Bride!"

The senior class went "all-out" in their production of the three act play of "Father of the Bride," by Caroline Francke. Under the direction of Miss Audrey Stewart; the famous "bloopers queens," Jane Younger and Fae McGinnis, student directors; and Bill Livingston, stage manager, the seniors set to work on the play in December.

The story takes place in the Banks' living room at different stages before the wedding of Kay Banks and Buckley Dunstan.

Soon everyone seems to catch some of Kay's and Mrs. Banks' anxiety and then things really get out of hand. Everyone makes additions to the rapidly growing guest list.

Excitement and laughter were furnished everywhere throughout the production. Despite the setback of having two characters step down from their role, the presentation went off smoothly both nights. Dick Brown's position as Pete was filled by Jim Coffinberger, and Shirley Bradley's part as Delilah was taken on the second night by Jane Younger.

"THE CARDS HAVE BEEN CHANGED!" Phyllis Lowe proves to be a show-stealer in her portrayal of Miss Bellamy, the efficient secretary.

BACK STAGE CREW: From L. to R. (STANDING) Judy White, CHM. PROPERTIES; Ellen Tilghman, COSTUMES; Pat Sturgis, PROPERTIES; Eleanor Hill, TICKETS; June Smack, MAKE-UP; Betty Belle Baker, MAKE-UP; Bill Livingston, STAGE MANAGER; Ed Parsons, LIGHTS; John Dardine, CHM. SET CREW; Ed Betts, CHM. LIGHTS; Josh

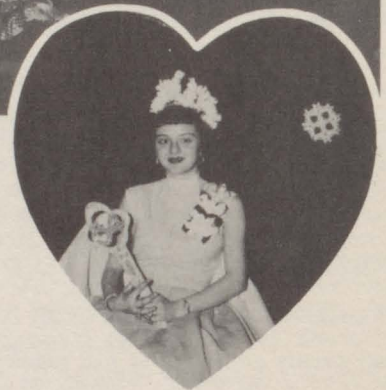

Richardson, CHM. SET DECOR. (SEATED) Joyce Massey, PROMPTER; Jane Younger, STUDENT DIRECTOR; Peggy Rademaker, CO.-CHM. PROPERTIES; Fae McGinnis, STUDENT DIRECTOR; Jim Coffinberger, ASST. STAGE MANAGER.

"I Crown Thee Queen"

INSET: QUEEN JANE

Everyone was kept happy at the dance by a fine string of entertainers. Bill Livingston piloted the show by serving as M. C. Below: (left to right) "Can't help loving that man," sings Pat Morris. ". . . And, friends, I saw that day the aw-fullest fight . . .," says Vernon Bennett as he portrays Deacon Andy Griffin and his record of "football". Comedy team Mary Rue Dallas and Yvonne Lewis keep the crowd laughing. Talented Carole Lee Dryden tap dances.

Orators" Speak

TIME OUT FOR EATS. Members take time out from debate to eat refreshments.

Because of the large membership, the Debating Club split into a senior club, under the advisorship of Mrs. Dick, and the junior club, with Mr. Morris Jones as advisor. The purposes of both clubs are the same.

MEETINGS ARE INFORMAL. Nightly meetings are informal debates.

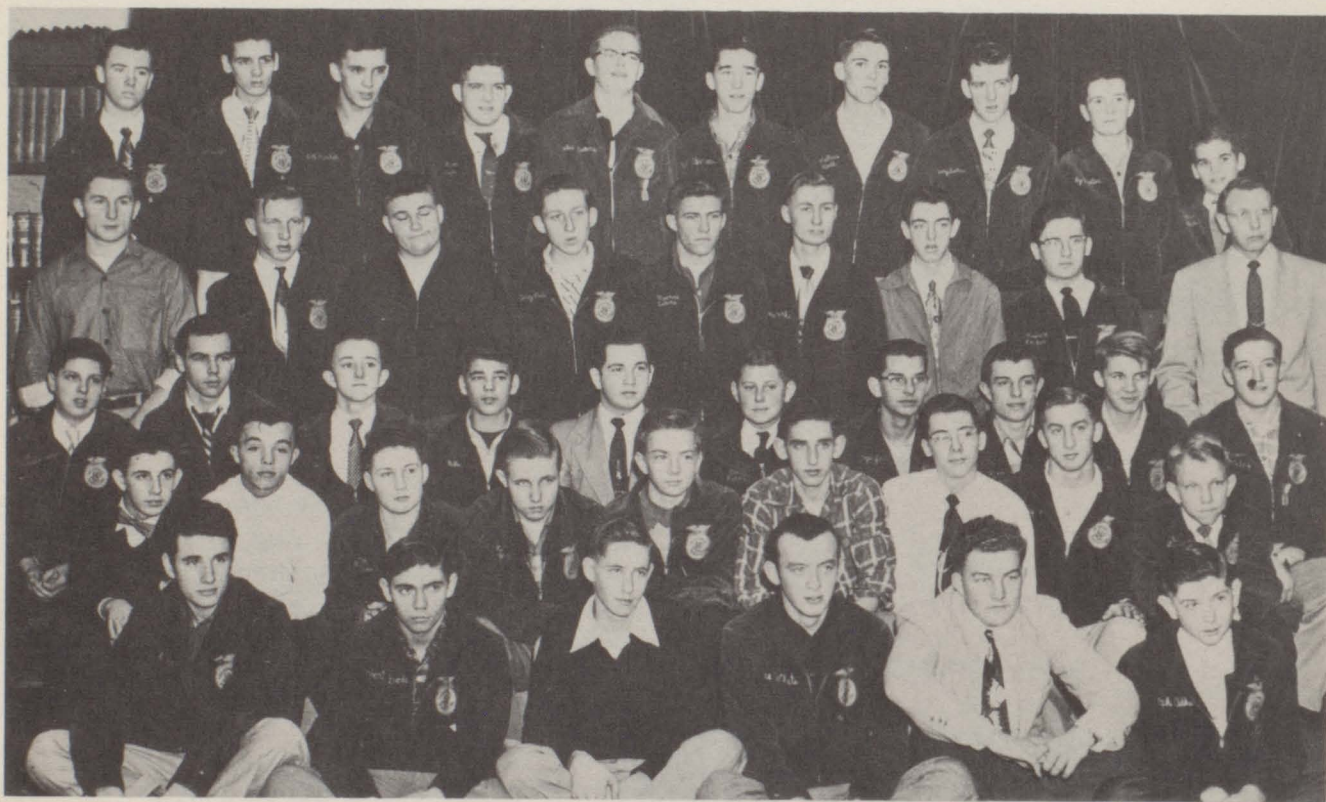

FFA Membership Increases

F. F. A. membership has doubled since last year. The club, which started out as a small group of boys interested in farming, has grown into a large organization which has brought fame to Wi-Hi in the agricultural field. Its forty-three members have worked on several educational projects, many of which have won for the boys competitive honors and awards.

Operetta Portrays College Life

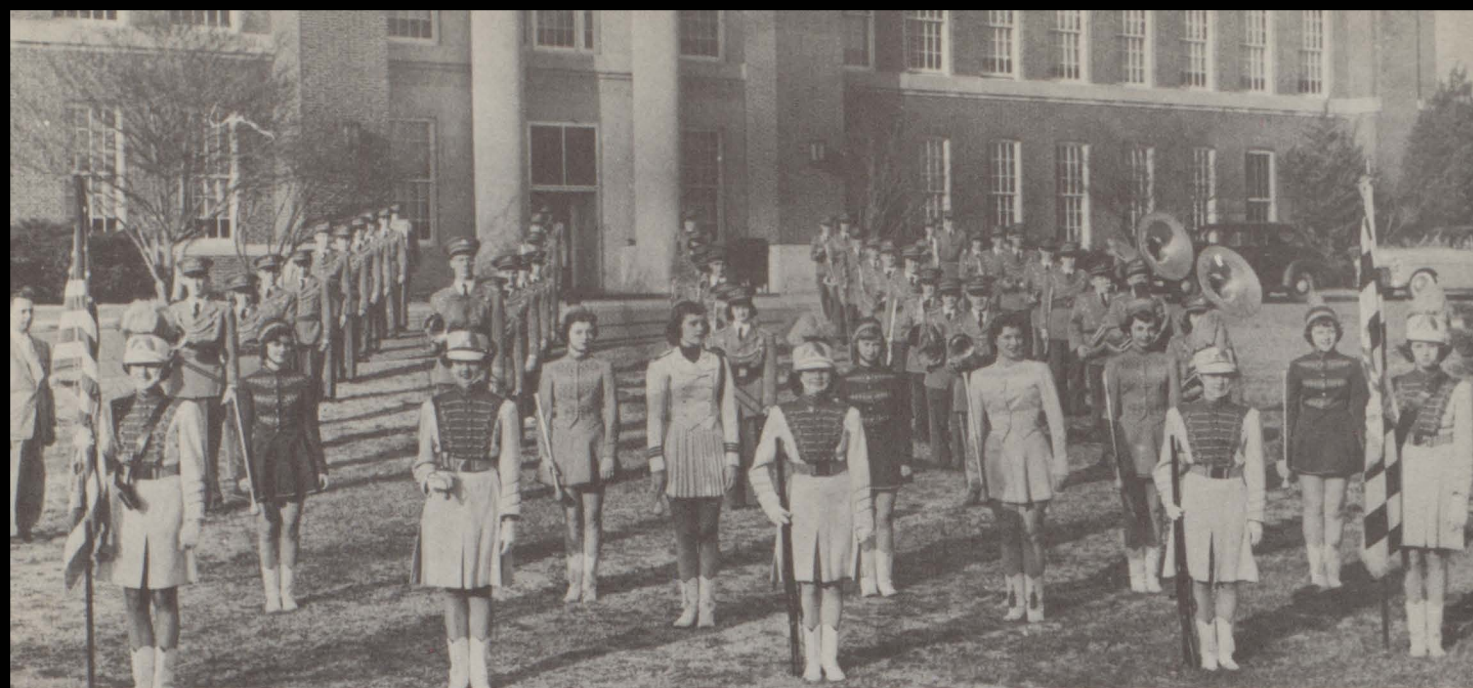

"College Days"

The story begins on the campus of Brindale College, U. S. A. It is based on a triangle love affair involving Dot Smith (Doris Gootee), Davy Carson (Jimmy Holloway), and Dude De Forest (Charles Mulford). Also included in the plot are Helen, Dot's pal (Carol Trader) and Tubby (Philip Jones); these two-together with Baldy, Dean of Women (Jayne Shivers) and Prexy, Dot's father (Ronnie Reinhardt)-carry out the comedy of the production. Also included in the cast are Foxy Grandpa (Alfred Troublefield) who is the villian, a baseball team, and lots of coeds.

Gridiron at a Glance

The Wicomico High Indians had a successful season, playing seven games, winning six, and losing one. The one loss was to the Milford Pirates, our fourth game of the season.

We opened the season September 26 by beating Seaford at home 13-6. Everything was going fine until the Milford game which was the only loss of the season. The next week the boys made it up by beating Dover 42-0 on their own turf. The Westminster game was cancelled because of bad weather and unfit playing field. The Bel Air game was a real thriller with Wi-Hi winning 26-14. On Thanksgiving Day Wi-Hi Indians invaded Cambridge and beat the Raiders 25-0. Fifteen seniors were playing their last football game for Wi-Hi.

Wi-Hi out rushed their opponents 1630 yds. to 824 and held the edge in first downs 83 to 40.

The top scoring threat was Bill Walston, scoring 8 TD's for 48 points; next was Chandler Hughes with 7 TD's for 42 points; then Lee Levering, Co-captain, followed with 3 TD's and 12 extra points for a total of 30 points. Wi-Hi scored 160 points to the opponents' 51.

The Indians were coached this year by our Head Coach, Charles Berry, assisted by Floyd Rabuck.

Co-Captains for this year were Lee Levering, fullback, and Harry Alexander, center.

Looking Back

Presenting, at last, the finished product. . . However, it could never have been completed without the help and cooperation of everybody concerned. Without the timely tutoring and advice of Mrs. Charles Hemming, Mr. Dalton Howard, and Mr. Morris Jones, our sponsors, this publication would probably not have gone off according to schedule. To them, we give our sincere gratitude.

We hope that as your high school day memories begin to fade, you will pick up your edition of the TOM TOM and renew your past experiences here. We have endeavored to present them to you through the Wi-Hi spotlight, just as they were, so you may enjoy them always.

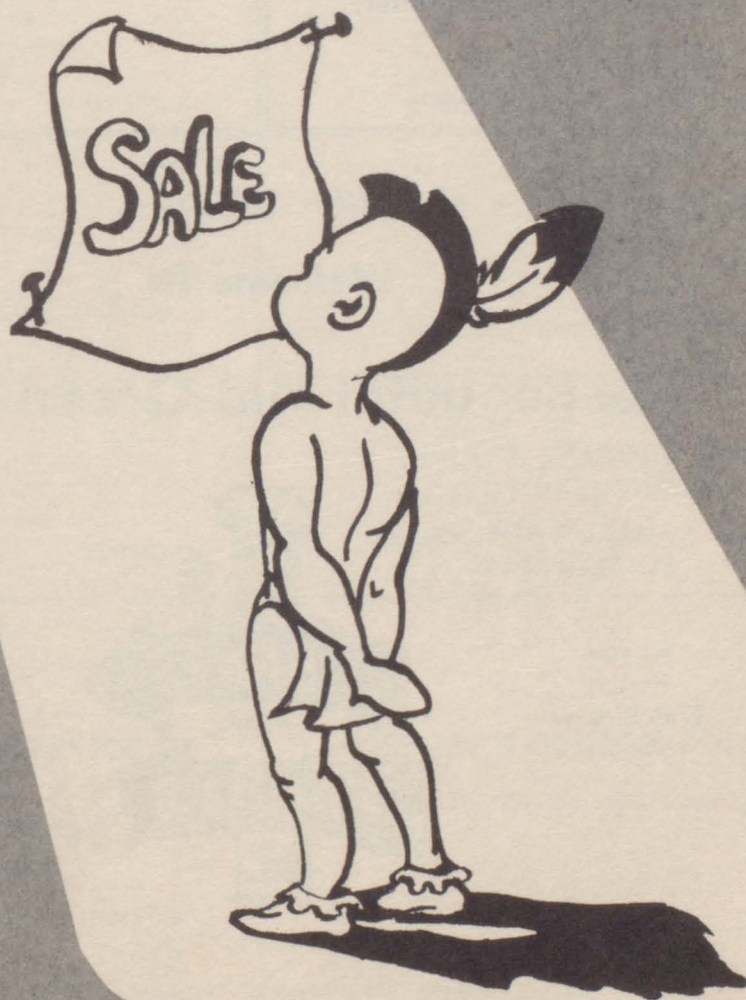

With the past behind and the future ahead, we say a fond good-bye to Wi-Hi and wish the best of luck to next year's staff.
